"It's been going on for a couple of months now, harassment from the auto drivers and police," said Omkar Yadav, a Rapido captain. "Fake rides and violent acts are a regular occurrence but now the auto drivers are also damaging our vehicles. Most of the bike taxi drivers I know are unemployed graduates. I myself am an engineer but couldn't find a job so I joined Rapido as a captain to be able to support my family. But that is getting more difficult by the day. These auto drivers have bothered many of my friends with calls of threat or extortion," Yadav said.

Rapido needs to do more to protect us and ensure our safety. They should have a dedicated support team that can quickly respond to any incidents and help us navigate these challenges with the auto rickshaw community."

-  Akash Gaikwad

"If Rapido could guarantee a minimum daily earnings target and provide us with a dedicated support hotline to report any incidents, it would go a long way in reassuring us and keeping us motivated to continue driving for the platform."

By implementing these long- term and short-term strategies, Rapido can implement a more robust support helpline, that can in turn help with the driver protection as well as the legal support needed in the process. With the integration of Auto Rickshaw service into the App, Rapido can collaborate and grow with all the partners.
